THE LONG AGO.

Oh! a wonderful stream is the river Time,

As it runs through the realms of tears, With a faultless rhythm and a musical rhyme, And a broader sweep, and a surge sublime, And blends with the ocean of years. How the winters are drifting like flakes of snow, And the summers like buds between,

And the year in the sheaf -so they come and they go On the river's breast, with its ebb and flow, As it glides in the shadow and sheen. There is a magical isle up the river Time,

Where the softest of airs are playing; There's a cloudless sky and a tropical clime, And a sing as sweet as a vesper chime. And the Junes with the roses are staying. And the name of this isle is the Long Ago, And we bury our treasures there;

There are brows of beauty and bosoms of snow-There are beaps of dust, but we loved them so! There are trinkets and tresses of hair. There are fragments of song that nobody sings, And a part of an infant's prayer; There's a lute unswept, and a harp without strings,

There are broken vows, and pieces of rings, And he garments that she used to wear. There are hands that are waved when the fairy shore By the mirage is lifted in air; And we sometimes hear, through the turbulent roar. Sweet voices we heard in the days gone before,

When the wind down the river is fair. Oh! remembered for aye be the blessed isle, All the day of life till night-

When the evening comes with its beautiful smile, And our eyes are closing to slumber awhile, May that "greenwood" of soul be in sight.

THE MAD STONE .- The Buffalo Democracy argues that "the mad stone." respecting which there has been so much discussion, is nothing more than the "bezoar stone," which was so highly prized in ancient times. It adds that-The word becoar is derived from a Per- PT Sally, Me

sian compound word, pa zahar, meaning destroyer of poison. Several kinds of bezoars have been found, and are named after the countries in which they were T Markham & ly. do discovered. They are all morbid concretions in the bodies of animals, and formerly enjoyed the reputation of magic powers of cure in cases of poisoning. HOMANCE IN A BAILBOAD CAR. Yesterday, says a Marseilles (France) paper, one of our railroad cars was the scene of a domestic drama, the circumstances of which are as follows:

A very young and pretty girl, elegantly dressed, was scated near a young man whose attitude and looks indicated an affection more tender than that of a cousin or a brother. Suddenly they both turned pale, and appeared greatly agitated. The entrance of a traveler, from a forward car, had produced this result. The traveler was no less than the father of the pretty child, who was justly incensed with the flight of his daughter, whom he supposed to be at Marseilles in company with a gallant. He was, however, provided with authority from the court of Tarascon, impowering him to arrest the fugitive couple wherever he The Great Illustrated Magazine of Art for Septem met them, and chance had brought the pursuer and the pursued within a few vards of each other. Chance also brought them face to face, and judging from the explosion which took place, the parties recognized each other at once. The loud noise which the motion of the train produced, prevented the whole company from hearing the reproaches which the irritated father heaped upon his runaway daughter. The neighboring passengers had the precaution at first to restrain his gestures. He consoled himself by exhibiting at every station his power to arrest them, which he endeavored to persuade the railroad officers to put in execution. They, however, excused themselves, but when the party arrived at the end of their journey, the gendarmes terminated the drama by putting the illegally-loving couple in a place of security.

In Russia, there are this year in course of publication, ninety-five newspapers, and sixty-six magazines and periodicals, devoted to the proceedings of learned societies. Of these, seventy-six newspapers and forty-eight magazines are in the Russian language; fifteen newspapers and ten magazines in German; two newspapers and six magazines in Cl. ths, Hearth Rups, French; three newspapers in English: house furnishing goods, which we will sell very lov one newspaper in Polish, and one in Latin: two newspapers Georgian, and two in Lettish; also three newspapers in Russian and German, and two in Russian and Polish. In St. Petersburg, twentysix newspapers and forty-two magazines are published in the languages above mentioned. Of the different newspapers in the Russian language, published in St. Petersburg, one resembles the French Moniteur, and publishes a collection of the laws and orders of the Government twice a week. Another publishes the decrees and decisions of the imperial senate. A third deals in light literature, with a sparing admixture of politics. The Russian Invalid, which told the tale of the loss of the Tiger, the other day, is a daily military newspaper. There is a government paper which appears once a week, and another which is published daily. There are also mining journals, farming journals, trade journals, and a "Finger-post to the police of St. Peters-

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIA A PHENOMENON IN MEDICINE. LIEALTH RESTORED AND LIFE

LENGTHENED, by DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR OR COMDIAL.—At first the proper-des attributed to Pro'. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR OR CORDIAL were deemed fabulous. The public often deceived, could not believe the simple and sublime truths announced by the discoverer .-But facts, undeniable facts attested by witnesses of the highest class and character, are now triumphing over all doubts. INOREDULITY IS OVER-THROWN by a mass of testimeny which is perfectly

The RUXIR remedies, in all cases, the deplorable evils arising from a misuse or abuse of the various organs which make up the wonderful machine called man. It restores to fall v gor every delicate funcden connected with that raysterious compound igency of matter and mind, necessary to the repreuction of human life. To persons of feeble muscuar frame, or deficient in vital power, it is recom mended as the only means of communicating that nergy which is necessary to the proper enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not confined to either sex or to any age. The feeble girl, the ailing wife, the listless, ernevated youth, the overworn man of business, the victim of nervous de pression, the individual suffering from general de-bility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the ase of this incomparable renovator. To those who have a predisposition to paralysis it will prove a complete and unfailing safeguard against that terri ble malady. There are many, perhaps, who have so trifled with their constitutions, that they think themselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elixir deals with disease as t exists, without reference to causes, and will not REBUILD THE BROKEN CONSTITUTION. The derangements of the system, leading to nerrous diseases, and the forms of nervous disease it lf, are so numerous that it would require a column o enumerate the maladies for which this prepararation is a specific. A few, however, may be enume rated, vis: neuralgia, tic dolersaux, hea tache, incipient paralysis, hysteria, palpitation of the heart, spins! affections, muscular debility, tremers, flatulence, a pricking sensation in the flesh, numbress, torpidity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will, indispo ition to move, faintness after exercise, broken sleep an I terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place or position, weakness of the precreative organs, sexual incompetency, melancholy, monomania, fluor albus, s nking at the stomach, fe male irregularities, a chronic tendency to miscar riage, emaciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions, and all barrennes that does not proceed from organic causes beyond the reach of melicine.

Whenever the organs to be acted upon are free from malformation or strictural diseases it is averred MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXER will replace weakness with strength, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural activity, and this not only without hazard of reaction. but with a happy effect on the general organization. Bear in mind that all maladies, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralisation of the nerves or motion and sensation is physical death. Bear in mind also, that for every kind of nervous disease the Elixer Cordial is the only reliable preparation known.
